

Conjunctions

1. Find the conjunction in the following sentences.

Re-order/write the sentence with the conjunction placed at the beginning.

Julia will arrive for lunch at twelve unless there's a problem with the traffic.

She was asked to clear the drive before the snow became too deep.

Dad decided to cut the grass whether it was going to rain or not.

2. Join the pairs of sentences together using one of the following relative pronouns:- who whose whom which

My mum bumped into an old friend at the bowling alley. She had not seen her since she left school twenty years ago.

The new picture was hung over the fireplace. It was a present from Grandma.

My best friend is an alien. He comes from the planet Zabrog.

3. Use these pairs of correlative conjunctions to join the sentences.

neither nor

*Draydon Town played football against Wetherfield United on Saturday.
Draydon didn't score a goal. Wetherfield didn't score a goal.*

not only but also

She was the smallest girl in the class. She was the youngest in the class!
