

Y6 Using capital letters correctly Task 3

1. Read the extract of the biography below.

Martin Luther King Jr. was a Baptist minister and civil-rights activist who had an enormous impact on race relations in the United States, beginning in the mid-1950s. King led the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). On August 28, 1963, the historic 'March on Washington' drew more than 200,000 people in the shadow of the Lincoln Memorial. It was here that King made his famous "I Have a Dream" speech, emphasizing his belief that someday all could be equal.

The rising tide of civil rights agitation produced a strong effect on public opinion. Many people in cities not experiencing racial tension began to question the nation's jim crow laws. Through his inspirational speeches, he played a pivotal role in ending the segregation of african-american citizens in the United States, as well as the creation of the civil rights act of 1964 and the Voting rights Act of 1965.

2. After reading the extract, check that capital letters have been used correctly and choose where changes have to be made.

Make the changes by rewriting out the extract ensuring that all capital letters are correct.

[illegible]

3. Tick the sentence that is punctuated correctly with capital letters.

Tick one

The UN was founded on 24 october 1945, after ratification by the United Nations Security Council. ☐

The UN was founded on 24 October 1945, after ratification by the United Nations Security Council. ☐

The un was founded on 24 October 1945, after ratification by the United Nations Security Council. ☐

The UN was founded on 24 October 1945, after ratification by the United nations Security Council. ☐

4. Tick one box in each row to show whether the capital letters are used correctly in the sentence.

Sentence	Capital letters used correctly	Capital letters not used correctly
This piece of music is from the 18th century.
I am certain he said he was from the South of India.
We watched an interesting documentary on tv.
He travelled to the Shetland Islands on the Dunmurry Ferry.

Y6 Using capital letters correctly Task 3 ANSWERS

2. After reading the extract, check that capital letters have been used correctly and choose where changes have to be made.

Make the changes by rewriting out the extract ensuring that all capital letters are correct.

Martin Luther King Jr was a Baptist minister and civil-rights activist who had an enormous impact on race relations in the United States, beginning in the mid-1950s. King led the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). On August 28, 1963, the historic March on Washington drew more than 200,000 people in the shadow of the Lincoln Memorial. It was here that King made his famous "I Have a Dream" speech, emphasising his belief that someday all could be equal.

The rising tide of civil rights agitation produced a strong effect on public opinion. Many people in cities not experiencing racial tension began to question the nation's Jim Crow laws. Through his inspirational speeches, he played a pivotal role in ending the segregation of African-American citizens in the United States, as well as the creation of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965.

3. Tick the sentence that is punctuated correctly with capital letters.

Tick one

The UN was founded on 24 october 1945, after ratification by the United Nations Security Council.

☐

The UN was founded on 24 October 1945, after ratification by the United Nations Security Council.

☒

The un was founded on 24 October 1945, after ratification by the United Nations Security Council.

☐

The UN was founded on 24 October 1945, after ratification by the United nations Security Council.

☐

4. Tick one box in each row to show whether the capital letters are used correctly in the sentence.

Sentence	Capital letters used correctly	Capital letters not used correctly
This piece of music is from the 18th century.	✓
I am certain he said he was from the South of India.		✓
We watched an interesting documentary on tv.		✓
He travelled to the Shetland Islands on the Dunmurry Ferry.	✓	